Vol. 28 EAST JORDAN, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1924. No. 16

Baseball Prospects for 1924

East Jordan Team Will Be Worthy Successors of Last Year's Champions

When the East Jordan team takes the field for the opening game this year the fans will see a team that will be a worthy successor to last years champion team.

Manager Parks has signed the following players of the 1923 team; Gunderson, star left handed pitcher who can play first base or in the outfield when not pitching, Covey who will again play second base and be field captain, Ward who is equally at home at either he first or third sack, Sam and Hank Kamradt the hardest hitters in Northern Michigan, LaLonde center fielder and Morgan shortstop. With the advantage of having played together last year all of them should put up a still better game this year.

In addition we will have in the lineup; DeLoof, who was with Cheboygan last year, DeLoof is a good right handed pitcher, can play any position in the infield or outfield and is one of the fastest base runners in Northern Michigan; Marc Hanna, infilder from the University of Michigan who formerly was with Charlevoix; Gorsuch, pitcher and infielder from Big Rapids, who last year defeated the long whiskered boys from the House of David, Tolles southpaw pitcher, formerly with the South Haven Independents, and Ted Parks outfielder. Shorty Bennett is in the neighborhood and may do the catching if his arm responds to treatments. Manager Parks is also dickering with Presieent Morrissey of the Grand Rapids Mint League Club for one or two players.

The finincial condition is better than ever before and this assures good backing for the team. The players have fine new uniforms, the best obtainable.

That last years team was well known throughout the state is evidenced by the fact that the following teams have asked for games; Postum Cereals (who played the three game series here last fall), Kellogg Corn Flakes (who won the independent championship of Western Michigan at the tournament at Grand Rapids last year), Detroit Stags, Kelly Ice Creams of Grand Rapids, Holland Independents, House of David, Reo Motors and Chicago Colored Giants. This list insures some fast games for the coming season. It is expected that the opening game will be played the first week in May, weather permitting.

Last year the Fair Association paid *off all their indebitedness and it is ex*pected that they will do considerable work on the diamond.

A winning baseball team always places a town on the map, last years team advertised East Jordan in all parts of Michigan. The team was loyally supported last year by the fans, not only at home but when we were playing in other towns. The team is sure to be well supported this year.

Complete box scores of all games will be printed in the Herald.

JACK GUNDERSON PITCHING GOOD BALL FOR KAZOO NORMAL

Pitching the last four innings of Kalamazoo Normal's 4 to 0 win over the Hollanders, Gunderson threw some spectacular ball, struck out six men and allowed only one hit. At bat he knocked a clean 3 bagger but was out at the plate when he tried to stretch it to a home run.

The Kalamazoo Gazette Sunday said: "Johny Gunderson finished final four innings with spectacular pitching. He allowed one hit and whiffed six. The only safe knock was one by Albers, who dropped a clean single in center field. Gunderson's southpaw slants, dazzling speed, and an occasional hook made his opponents helpless at the plate."

It is altogether probable that Gunderson will be called on by Coach Hyames to bear the brunt of the mound work this season. The Normal has less pitching talent than last year—that is why Guuderson, a .400 hitter, has been brought in from the outfield—and the East Jordan boy looks the class of lot. Ellingson, a Wisconsin lad who pitched the first five innings against Hope, also looked like a mighty good bet Saturday.

The Normal has a 21—game schedule which includes games with some of the middlewest, notably Michigan, Notre Dame, Ohio State and Chicago U.

Medals Are On Display

In Palmiter's Window, Medals for Honor Students May Be Seen.

The medals to be given out in June at Comencement time, for the students whose average is 95 per cent or better, are on display in the Palmiter Jewelry window. Above, they have „E. J.„ and below "H. S.", (East Jordan High School). On a raised bar across the center is the word "Honor". Below this is the laurel wreath, famous in Grecian history, signifying as we know, victory. Surely it is a real victory to the student who receives such a distinct honor at the annual commencement.

The students and public are invited to take a look at the medals. Possibly to some student, it would be an inspiration to greater work, for they surely are a distinctive and artistic piece of work.

The method of giving out these medals, by the Principal at the annual commencement, has already been explained. Since this is the first time that this has been done in our Public Schools the Seniors get a solid gold medals. The schools have assumed that they would have had a 95 per cent average for the three previous years, and so on down the list.

ANDREW ANDERSON AGED 73 YEARS PASSES AWAY

Deceased was born in Sweden, Sept. 24th, 1851. He came to the United States in 1881, locating in South Bend, Indiana. The same year he was united in marriage to Mary Koarnstrom. Later they removed to Mancelona, Mich., where they resided three years. They came to East Jordan about eighteen years ago, and have since made this city their home.

Besides the wife, deceased is survived by two sons and one daughter—John and Gus Anderson, and Mrs. Barney Bayliss, all of East Jordan. Also by a sister, Mrs. Gus Lund of Mancelona.

Funeral services were held from his late home Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. W. Sidebotham. Interment at Sunset Hill.

MRS. HERBERT COLBURN PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Herbert Colburn passed away at her home in East Jordan, West Side, Friday, April 11th, following a four-year losing fight with tuberculosis.

Emma Bacon was born at Gladstone, Mich., Oct., 7th, 1893. She removed with her parents to Charlevoix about the year 1904. On Nov. 23rd, 1912, she was united in marriage to Herbert Colburn at East Jordan.

Deceased is survived by the husband and two children, Marguerite and Herbert. Also by her parents, Charles A. Bacon of Ellsworth, and Mrs. Bacon of Charlevoix, and the following brothers and sisters:—Alden Bacon of Owosso, Enos of Buffalo, George of Jackson, Melvin and Webster of Ellsworth, Bruce of Charlevoix, and Mrs. John Cunningham of Owosso.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Henry Hulme. Interment was made at Brookside Cemetery, Charlevoix.

All the surviving relatives were present at the funeral services with exception of the brother, Enos, of Buffalo who was unable to attend.

In Memoriam, Emma Colburn

Our mother's flown to realms above,
Her spirit floats the ambient air;
She dwells now in our Father's love,
Forever shielded by His care.

The cares and toil of worldly strife
Her earthly form no more shall bear;
For God and Heaven's eternal life
Forever more shall be her share.

LOVEDAY-HARRIS WEDDING SURPRISE AT LANSING.

One the real surprises of the season, especially for the younger set, is word of the marriage of Miss Leila Harris, niece of Mr. and Mrs. George Bohnet, 601 N. Capitol-av., and Jule W. Loveday son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Asa Loveday, 708 N. Walnut St., which took place in Lansing New Year's eve.

The young couple guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bohnet at the dinner dance at the Lansing Country club that evening. They left the club early and "stole a march" on their friends, keeping their marriage a secret until recently.

The bride and groom were graduates of the Lansing high school with the class of 1921 and their wedding is the culmination of a youthful romance begun when they were juniors. Mrs. Loveday has been teaching at Greenville. While Mr. Loveday was a student at the University of Michigan.

The young people were guests of Lansing relatives and friends Sunday.—Lansing Capitol News, Wednesday, April 9th.

Reunion at Spring Lake

One Hundred Fifty Former East Jordanites In Social Time.

(Grand Haven Tribune, April 11th)

A love of their old home town and pleasant social life enjoyed there is still so strong in the hearts of some of the people who once lived in East Jordan that they come for miles to get together and renew friendship and associations very dear to them. The bonds of love and neighborliness are not broken even though they have moved to many different parts of the state.

A picnic of old time East Jordan folks held last summer when about a hundred people gathered decided the company to form a club and elected Ray Fox, now of Spring Lake, president; Bert Reid, Muskegon, vice president, and Stanley Risk, of Muskegon, secretary and treasurer. The object of the club is purely social and the first meeting was held in the Masonic club rooms in Spring Lake last week. Despite the dreadful weather one hundred and fifty people from Lansing, Muskegon, Grand Rapids and Conklin came with good things, and such a spread as only Jordan folk can serve, was most enthusiastically received. After a few speeches and talks by various members the company adjourned to the hall above, where they danced and played games till a late honr.

A picnic is promised for the early part of the summer and surely hearts are cheered and warmed by meeting old acquaintances and these people all agree that old friends are best. Rev. and Mrs. Rea, of Spring Lake, were invited to meet the company and Mr. Rea gave a very nice talk welcoming them to Spring Lake as a fine meeting place.

Arbor and Bird Day

Gov. Groesbeck Sets Apart Friday, May 2nd, for Observance.

Arbor Day signifies but one thing, the day on which a tree should be planted. In the past it has been the custom of many schools to observe the day by planting trees. Except the commendable observance of educational institutions, Arbor Day has meant but little to our citizenship.

Every human is a lover of trees. In lands where trees do not grow naturally, tireless efforts are made by inhabitants to grow them because there is something about their sturdiness and and beauty that appeals to every race.

In this wonderful State where trees grow without the slightest cultivation, why not make Arbor Day of 1924 the beginning of an effort to plant a million trees in Michigan before the spring is over? If every school would not only plant one tree but many, if every home owner would plant both fruit and shade trees, if county highway officials would place along the roads young trees and if the various communities would make the day one of general tree planting, Michigan could easily have one million more trees growing when the spring gives way to summer sun.

Not only should we plant trees on Ardor Day and at every suitable time thereafter, but we should check the cutting of young pines. There are thousands of acres of land in Northern Michigan suitable only for tree growing. It is the purpose of the State as far as possible to replace the forests taken from this land but the State cannot accomplish the complete restoration it hopes for without the assistance of its loyal citizens. It is a duty this generation owes to the future to see to it that depleted forests are restored. The idle land of the north, now of little value to the commonwealth because of its nonproduction, can in another score of years again become a vast forest of untold value, providing the various units that go to make this great commonwealth join with the State in a great tree-planting campaign, beginning with Arbor Day.

Michigan has always been regarded as one of the scenic places of America because of its trees, lakes and streams. Let this generation not only restore the devastated forests but add to the natural attractiveness of the State by planting the right varieties of trees in the right places.

With forests and wooded places we associate the wildlife that we are so energetically endeavoring to save and restore, so it is entirely proper that Arbor Day also be designated as Bird Day. Protect and save the feathered beauties. Nothing gladdens one more than the beautiful song of a tree-hidden bird.

It is with pleasure, therefore, that I hereby designate Friday, May 2 1924, as Arbor and Bird Day, and earnestly urge that date mark the beginning of the greatest tree planting campaign ever conducted in any state.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this ninth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-eighth.

ALEX. J. GROESBECK.

IMMIGRATION BILL PUTS BAN ON JAPS

HOUSE PASSES RESTRICTIVE MEASURE OVER PROTEST OF NIPPONESE.

VOTE DECISIVE, 322 TO 71

Note From Japan Had Warned That Exclusion Would Result in "Grave Consequences."

Washington—Carrying a Japanese exclusion provision against which the Japanese government has protested vigorously, the Johnson immigration bill passed the house, 322 to 71. No effort was made to eliminate the Japanese section, which provoked only brief and perfunctory discussion.

There was nothing to indicate that any of the opposition votes were directed at the Asiatic policy, but rather against the provision fixing the 1890 census as the basis of the two per cent quota, which was adopted.

The existing law, which expires on next June 30, fixed the quota at three per cent on the 1910 census and had no provision relating to Japanese immigration which for years has been regulated by the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan. Secretary Hughes has urged that the American government continue to recognize this agreement and the Japanese be placed on the same quota basis as the nationals of other countries.

Ambassador Hanihara, of Japan, had a few days previously, protested vigorously against excluding Japanese immigration. His letter to Secretary Hughes reiterated Japan's formal protest against the exclusion of that country from nations entitled to a definite quota, and warned of "the grave consequences" which enactment of the measure "would inevitably bring."

The note, gave for the first time in concrete form the terms of the Gentlemen's Agreement of 1907, asserted formally that Japan had scrupulously observed that covenant and declared the honor of the Japanese government was being attacked by those who contended to the contrary.

FLYER FALLS OVER FOUR MILES

Selfridge Aviator Breaks Record In Parachute Drops.

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Jumping off a DeHaviland plane at a height of 22,400 feet, or more than four miles, Sergt. Dewey Webb of Selfridge Field, broke the record for a parachute jump by an enlisted man in an ordinary Army plane. A wrenched back was the penalty of his feat. The plane was piloted by Sergeant Geo. Pomeroy.

Because of the cold, rarefied air, and his heavy clothing, Webb climbed out on the fuselage of the plane with great difficulty when the plane had reached its maximum height.

He stood upright on the fuselage of the plane and then fell off. He was too encumbered to jump.

It was only after he had taken a sheer drop of several hundred feet that he opened one of the two parachutes strapped to his back. The second he never opened. As the parachute opened, his descent was checked so suddenly that his back was wrenched.

For 25 minutes he fell, drifting 15 to 16 miles. He landed near Utica, falling feet first. The wind drove the parachute into a tree and then dragged into a fence corner, where Webb, stunned, regained consciousness after a few minutes and found himself ill.

Meanwhile, Sergt. Pomeroy and Lieut. Ruben Moffett, in another plane, were following the course of the parachute to be on hand when Webb landed.

GAS RATES ARE UP IN DETROIT

New Agreement Increases Charge to Large Consumers.

Detroit—The board of arbitration for new gas rates, after four months of hearings and deliberations, has made its decision fixing gas rates for three years.

The decision provides that: Rates to householders and other small consumers shall remain the same as at present, 79 cents per 1000 feet minumum.

Rates to large consumers shall be increased, the increases to range from 8½ to 43 per cent more than the present rates.

The minimum monthly bill to any consumer shall be $1.

The calorific content of the gas shall be reduced from its present standard of 600 British Thermal Units per 1,000 cu. ft. to 530 B T U.'s.

Over $15,000,000,000 Are Tax Exempt.

Washington—The treasury made public a revised estimate of the amount of wholly tax-exempt securities outstanding on February 29, 1924 The total was estimated at $15,107,000,000. This includes $11,378,000,000 in securities of states, counties, cities etc. $2,294,000,000 of securities of the United States government, $1,310,000,000 of land banks, and $125,000,000 of securities of territories, insular possessions and the District of Columbia.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Hillsdale—Strictly fresh eggs declined to a record low price for many years here when they were retailed in the open market at 19 cents a dozen.

Owosso—A contract for the construction of the new city hall has been awarded to the Henry C. Webber Construction Co., of Bay City. Its bid for the general contract was $82,890.

Detroit—Three hundred and fifty members of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce will help Detroit celebrate the Fourth of July. They will stop on their way to Duluth during the second annual cruise of the organization.

Detroit—The economic importance of the lakes-to-the-ocean deep waterway project will be emphasized in one of the numerous educational exhibits to be shown at the Michigan Industrial exposition in Convention hall, May 3, to 17.

East Lansing—With the receipt of the entry of the Bay City Riding Club, the annual R. O. T. C. Horse Show at the Michigan Agricultural College, May 30 and 31, is assuming proportions which rank it with the leading events of the type in the state.

Monroe—Motorists in the vicinity of Carleton, 10 miles north of Monroe, are riding on free gasoline these days. A tank car filled with gasoline derailed and the car was partly upset so that gasoline flowed from it in a steady stream. Residents quickly secured pans, milk cans and other containe and carried it away.

Pontiac—Traffic officers of Pontiac will begin a drive against defective brakes of automobiles. All motorists will be stopped and the brakes of their cars tested. Those which pass inspection will bring a card of approval for the owner while others will be required to visit repair shops at once or lose their driver's licenses.

Charlotte—The lives of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barlond, of Kalamo Township, were saved by a book agent who called at their house, looked in the window and saw the two sitting in their chairs apparently sleeping, and then broke in and found the two had been overcome by coal gas. They were taken into the air and revived.

East Lansing—Michigan potato growers lose more than $1,000,000 a year, by marketing potatoes of poor quality, according to H. C. Moore, potato specialist for the Michigan Agricultural College Extension Division. "The market demands high quality stock," declared Moore, "and our producers must grow the kind the market wants."

Detroit—The council has approved the ordinance requiring the vaccination of all dogs against rabies. This action was taken upon request of Dr. Henry F. Vaughan, health commissioner, who presented statistics intended to prove that there is a great danger of persons suffering from hydrophobia as a result of being bitten by dogs at this time.

Grand Rapids—A freight car loaded with imported liquor was seized by Federal prohibition agents in the Grand Trunk Railway yards here. The cargo, valued by Mr. Davis at $20,000 to $25,000, is one of the richest seizures made by prohibition agents in some time. The car was billed from a fictitious firm in Seabright, N. J., to a fictitious person in Grand Rapids as "auto decking."

Detroit—Hereafter, the minimum bail for prisoners, brought before J. Stanley Hurd, United States Commissioner, will be $2,000. In making this announcement, Mr. Hurd said the step was necessitated by the frequency with which Federal prisoners—particularly of the bootlegging fraternity—have, of late, forfeited the $1,000 bonds under which it has been his general practice to place them while awaiting trial.

Pontiac—Clifford W. Ham, city manager of Gladstone, Mich., and former city clerk here, has been appointed city manager of Pontiac at a salary of $6,500 a year. The appointment was made by the city commission from a list of 11 candidates. He succeeds Irving C. Brower, who resigned rather than demand at the request of the commission, the immediate resignation of Ike Thurman, ousted chief of police.

Grand Rapids — Drastic action against autourban bus operators violating the State truck weight limitation was taken last week when deputy sheriffs stopped buses and compelled several of the passengers to walk to their destinations or to interurban stations. Operators have threatened to discontinue service because of the enforcement of the ruling which limits some large buses to 19 passengers and others to only five or six.

Lansing—Proof of publication of the legal notices of the judgment of ouster issued against the House of David has been filed by the state with the secretary of state's department and the clerk of the Ingham county circuit court. This step paves the way for the filing of a petition by the state attorney general's department, asking for appointment of a receiver for the Benton Harbor colony. The big legal fight to oust the colony from Michigan then will be under way, according to O. L. Smith, assistant attorney general.

The Truth

About this Light-Six—plus proof on proof

THIS Studebaker Light-Six is the supreme value in the "thousand-dollar" class.

It offers, not a few, but scores of advantages. In its chassis it represents the best that modern engineering knows. In its steels and quality of construction it is identical with the costliest cars we build.

This is to offer you proofs. Then urge that you see it before paying $1,000 or more for a car.

Some evidence

The extra values which this car typifies have made Studebaker the largest builder of quality cars.

They have made these cars a sensation. Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The multiplying demand has forced an investment of $50,000,000 in model plants and equipment. Of this, $38,000,000 has been spent in the past five years, so the plants are up-to-date.

The engineering department which designs and superintends this Light-Six costs $500,000 per year.

The machines which build it are modern and exact. 517 operations on this car are exact to 1/1000th of an inch. 122 operations are exact to one-half 1/1000th of an inch.

1,200 inspectors are employed to submit each car in the making to 32,000 inspections.

Infinite care

The steels are selected from 35 formulas, each one proved best by years of test for its purpose. On some we pay the makers 15% premium to get them exactly right.

The crankshafts are machined on all surfaces, as was done in the Liberty Airplane Motors. This to give perfect motor balance, at an extra cost to us of $600,000 yearly.

It has more Timken bearings than any other competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

The equipment is unusual. The cushions are of genuine leather, and are ten inches deep.

Every part and detail accords with Studebaker traditions. And the name Studebaker has for 72 years stood for quality and class.

Mark this result

Some men who operate fleets of cars in this class called in auditors to compare the operating costs. They made comparisons on 329 cars, running up to 25,000 miles.

It was found that this Studebaker Light-Six cost for operation 11.4% less than the average of its rivals. This figure included depreciation. That meant $207.50 saved on 25,000 miles. All because of this quality construction.

What it saves you

We build 150,000 cars yearly. All such major costs as engineering, dies, overhead, etc., are divided by 150,000.

We build in model plants, with modern machinery, which have immensely reduced the manufacturing costs.

A car like this, built under ordinary conditions, would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

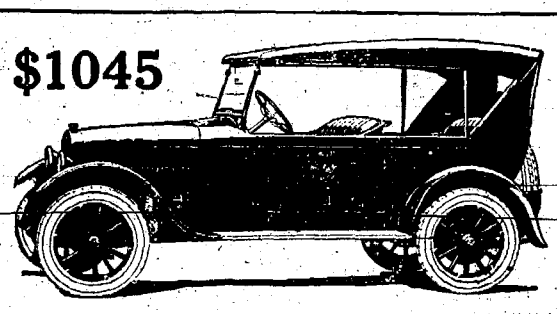

Learn, for your own sake, what that means to you.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST PRODUCER OF QUALITY AUTOMOBILES

She settled herself in the stern and they glided down the narrow thoroughfare. The rose bushes from the garden almost lapped the water as they passed. Behind, the long low cottage, the deserted dinner table, the smooth lawn with its beds of scarlet geraniums and drooping lilac shrubs in the background, seemed like a scene from fairyland, to attain a perfection of detail unreal, almost theatrical.

"To the right when you reach the river, please," she directed. "You will find there is scarcely any current. We turn up the next stream."

There was something almost mysterious, a little impressive, about the broad expanse of river into which they presently turned. Opposite were woods and then a sloping lawn. From a house hidden in the distance they heard the sound of a woman singing. They even caught the murmurs of applause as she concluded. Then there was silence, only the soft gurgling of the water cloven by the punt pole. They glided past the front of the great unlit house, past another strip of woodland, and then up a narrow stream.

"To the left here," she directed, "and then stop."

They bumped against the bank. The little backwater into which they had turned seemed to terminate in a bed of lilies whose faint fragrance almost enveloped them. The trees on either side made a little arch of darkness.

"Please ship your pole and listen," Margaret said dreamily. "Make yourself as comfortable as you can. There are plenty of cushions behind you. This is where I come for silence."

Francis obeyed her orders without remark. For a few moments, speech seemed impossible. The darkness was so intense that, although he was acutely conscious of her presence there, only a few feet away, nothing but the barest outline of her form was visible. The silence which she had brought him to seek was all around them. There was just the faintest splash of water from the spot where the stream and the river met, the distant barking of a dog, the occasional croaking of a frog from somewhere in the midst of the bed of lilies. Otherwise the silence and darkness were like a shroud. Francis leaned forward in his place. His hands, which gripped the sides of the punt, were hot. The serenity of the night mocked him.

"So this is your paradise," he said, a little hoarsely.

She made no answer. Her silence seemed to him more thrilling than words. He leaned forward. His hands fell upon the soft fur which encompassed her. They rested there. Still she did not speak. He tightened his grasp, moved further forward, the passion surging through his veins, his breath almost failing him. He was so near now that he heard her breathing, saw her face, pale as ever. Her lips were a little parted, her eyes looked out, as it seemed to him, half in fear, half in hope. He bent lower still. She neither shrank away nor invited him.

Her Lips Were a Little Parted, Her Eyes Looked Out, as It Seemed to Him, Half in Fear, Half in Hope.

"Dear!" he whispered.

Her arms stole from underneath the cloak, her fingers rested upon his shoulders. He scarcely knew whether it was a caress or whether she were holding him from her. In any case it was too late. With a little sob of passion his lips were pressed to hers. Even as she closed her eyes, the scent of the lilies seemed to intoxicate him.

He was back in his place without conscious movement. His pulses were quivering, the passion stirring in his blood, the joy of her faint caress living proudly in his memory. It had been the moment of his life, and yet even now he felt sick at heart with fears, with the torment of her passiveness. She had lain there in his arms, he had felt the thrill of her body, some quaint inspiration had told him that she had sought for joy in that moment and had not wholly failed. Yet his anxiety was tumultuous, overwhelming. Then she spoke, and his heart leaped again. Her voice was more natural. It was not a voice which he had ever heard before.

"Give me a cigarette, please—and I want to go back."

He leaned over her again, struck a match with trembling fingers and gave her the cigarette. She smiled at him very faintly.

"Please go back now," she begged. "Smoke yourself, take me home slowly and say nothing."

He obeyed, but his knees were shaking when he stood up. Slowly, a foot at a time, they passed from the mesh of the lilies out into the broad stream. Almost as they did so, the yellow rim of the moon came up over the low hills. As they turned into their own stream, the light was strong enough for him to see her face. She lay there like a ghost, her eyes half closed, the only touch of color in the shining strands of her beautiful hair. She roused herself a little as they swung around. He paused, leaning upon the pole.

"You are not angry?" he asked.

"No, I am not angry," she answered. "Why should I be? But I cannot talk to you about it tonight."

They glided to the edge of the landing-stage. A servant appeared and secured the punt.

"Is Sir Timothy back yet?" Margaret inquired.

"Not yet, madam."

She turned to Francis.

"Please go and have a whisky and soda in the smoking room," she said, pointing to the open French windows. "I am going to my favorite seat. You will find me just across the bridge, there."

He hesitated, filled with a passionate disinclination to leave her side even for a moment. She seemed to understand, but she pointed once more to the room.

"I should like very much," she added, "to be alone for five minutes. If you will come and find me then—please!"

Francis stepped through the French windows into the smoking room, where all the paraphernalia for satisfying thirst were set out upon the sideboard. He helped himself to whisky and soda and drank it absently, with his eyes fixed upon the clock. In five minutes he stepped once more back into the gardens, soft and brilliant now in the moonlight. As he did so, he heard the click of the gate in the wall, and footsteps. His host, with Lady Cynthia upon his arm, came into sight and crossed the lawn towards him. Francis, filled though his mind was with other thoughts, paused for a moment and glanced towards them curiously. Lady Cynthia seemed for a moment to have lost all her weariness. Her eyes were very bright, she walked with a new spring in her movements. Even her voice, as she addressed Francis, seemed altered.

"Sir Timothy has been showing me some of the wonders of his villa—do you call it a villa or a palace?" she asked.

"It is certainly not a palace," Sir Timothy protested, "and I fear that it has scarcely the atmosphere of a villa. It is an attempt to combine certain ideas of my own with the requirements of modern entertainment. Come and have a drink with us, Ledsam."

"I have just had one," Francis replied. "Mrs. Hilditch is in the rose garden and I am on my way to join her."

He passed on and the two moved towards the open French windows. He crossed the rustic bridge that led into the flower garden, turned down the pergola and came to a sudden standstill before the seat which Margaret had indicated. It was empty, but in the corner lay the long-stalked lily which she had picked in the backwater. He stood there for a moment, transfixed. There were other seats and chairs in the garden, but he knew before he started his search that it was in vain. She had gone. The flower, drooping a little now, though the stalk was still wet with the moisture of the river, seemed to him like her farewell.

Francis was surprised, when he descended for breakfast the next morning, to find the table laid for one only. The butler, who was waiting, handed him the daily papers and wheeled the electric heater to his side.

"Is no one else breakfasting?" Francis asked.

"Sir Timothy and Mrs. Hilditch are always served in their rooms, sir. Her ladyship is taking her coffee upstairs."

Francis ate his breakfast, glanced through the Times, lit a cigarette and went round to the garage for his car. The butler met him as he drove up before the porch.

"Sir Timothy begs you to excuse him this morning, sir," he announced. "His secretary has arrived from town with a very large correspondence, which they are now engaged upon."

"And Mrs. Hilditch?" Francis ventured.

"I have not seen her maid this morning, sir," the man replied, "but Mrs. Hilditch never rises before midday. Sir Timothy hopes that you slept well, sir, and would like you to sign the visitors' book."

Francis signed his name mechanically, and was turning away when Lady Cynthia called to him from the stairs. She was dressed for traveling and followed by a maid, carrying her dressing-case.

"Will you take me up to town, Mr. Ledsam?" she asked.

"Delighted," he answered.

Their dressing-cases were strapped together behind and Lady Cynthia sank into the cushions by his side. They drove away from the house, Francis with a backward glance of regret. The striped sun-blinds had been lowered over all the windows, thrushes and blackbirds were twittering on the lawn, the air was sweet with the perfume of flowers, a boatman was busy with the boats. Out beyond, through the trees, the river wound its placid way.

"Quite a little paradise," Lady Cynthia murmured.

"Delightful," her companion assented. "I suppose great wealth has its obligations, but why any human being should rear such a structure as what he calls his Borghese villa, when he has a charming place like that to live in, I can't imagine."

Her silence was significant, almost purposeful. She unwound the veil from her motoring turban, took it off altogether and attached it to the cushions of the car with a hatpin.

"There," she said, leaning back, "you can now gaze upon a horrible example to the young women of today. You can see the ravages which late hours, innumerable cocktails, a thirst for excitement, a contempt of the simple pleasures of life, have worked upon my once comely features. I was quite good-looking, you know, in the days you first knew me."

"You were the most beautiful debutante of your season," he agreed.

"What do you think of me now?" she asked.

She met his gaze without flinching. Her face was unnaturally thin, with disfiguring hollows underneath her cheekbones; her lips lacked color; even her eyes were lusterless. Her hair seemed to lack brilliancy. Only her silken eyebrows remained unimpaired, and a certain charm of expression which nothing seemed able to destroy.

"You look tired," he said.

"Be honest, my dear man," she rejoined dryly. "I am a physical wreck, dependent upon cosmetics for the looks which I am still clever enough to palm off on the uninitiated."

"Why don't you lead a quieter life?" he asked. "A month or so in the country would put you all right. If you were my sister, I'd take you away for a fortnight and put you on the road to being cured."

"Then I wish I were your sister," she sighed.

"Don't think I'm unsympathetic," he went on, "because I'm not. It is just you people who are cursed with a restless brain who are in the most dangerous position, nowadays. The things which keep us healthy and normal physically—games, farces, dinner parties of young people, fresh air and exercise—are the very things which after a time fail to satisfy the person with imagination. You want more out of life, always the something you don't understand, the something beyond. And so you keep on trying new things, and for every new thing you try, you drop an old one. Isn't it something like that?"

"I suppose it is," she admitted wearily.

"I could point out the promised land, but how could I lead you to it?" he answered.

"You don't like me well enough," she sighed.

"I like you better than you believe," he answered her, slackening his speed a little. "We have met, I suppose, a dozen times in our lives. I have danced with you here and there, talked nonsense once, I remember, at a musical reception—"

"I tried to flirt with you then," she interrupted.

He nodded.

"I was in the midst of a great case," he said, "and everything that happened to me outside it was swept out of my mind day by day. What I was going to say is that I have always liked you, from the moment when your mother presented me to you at your first dance."

"I wish you'd told me so," she murmured.

"It wouldn't have made any difference," he declared. "I wasn't in a position to think of a duke's daughter, in those days. I don't suppose I am now."

"Try," she begged hopefully.

He smiled back at her. The reawakening of her sense of humor was something.

"Too late," he regretted. "During the last month or so the thing has come to me which we all look forward to, only I don't think fate has treated me kindly. I have always loved normal ways and normal people, and the woman I care for is different."

"Tell me about her!" she insisted.

"You will be very surprised when I tell you her name," he said. "It is Margaret Hilditch."

She looked at him for a moment in blank astonishment.

"Heavens!" she exclaimed. "Oliver Hilditch's wife?"

"I can't help that," he declared, a little doggedly. "She's had a miserable time, I know. She was married to a scamp. I'm not quite sure that her father isn't as bad a one. Those things don't make any difference."

"They wouldn't with you," she said softly. "Tell me, did you say anything to her last night?"

"I did," he replied. "I began when we were out alone together. She gave me no encouragement to speak of, but at any rate she knows."

Lady Cynthia leaned a little forward in her place.

"Do you know where she is now?" she asked.

He was a little startled.

"Down at the cottage, I suppose. The butler told me that she never rose before midday."

"Then for once the butler was mistaken," his companion told him. "Margaret Hilditch left at six o'clock this morning. I saw her in traveling clothes get into the car and drive away."

"She left the cottage this morning before us?" Francis repeated, amazed.

"I can assure you that she did," Lady Cynthia insisted. "I never sleep, amongst my other peculiarities," she went on bitterly, "and I was lying on a couch by the side of the open window when the car came for her. She stopped it at the bend of the avenue—so that it shouldn't wake us up, I suppose. I saw her get in and drive away."

Francis was silent for several moments. Lady Cynthia watched him curiously.

"At any rate," she observed, "in whatever mood she went away this morning, you have evidently succeeded in doing what I have never seen any one else do—breaking through her indifference. I shouldn't have thought that anything short of an earthquake would have stirred Margaret, these days."

"These days," he repeated quickly. "How long have you known her?"

"We were at school together for a short time," she told him. "It was while her father was in South America. Margaret was a very different person in those days."

"However was she induced to marry a person like Oliver Hilditch?" Francis speculated.

His companion shrugged her shoulders.

"Who knows?" she answered indifferently. "Are you going to drop me?"

"Wherever you like."

"Take me on to Grosvenor square, if you will, then," she begged, "and deposit me at the ancestral mansion. I am really rather annoyed about Margaret," she went on, rearranging her veil. "I had begun to have hopes that you might have revived my taste for normal things."

"If I had had the slightest intimation—" he murmured.

"It would have made no difference," she interrupted dolefully. "Now I come to think of it, the Margaret whom I used to know—and there must be plenty of her left yet—is just the right type of woman for you."

They drew up outside the house in Grosvenor square. Lady Cynthia held out her hand.

"Come and see me one afternoon, will you?" she invited.

"I'd like to very much," he replied.

She lingered on the steps and waved her hand to him—a graceful, somewhat insolent gesture.

"All the same, I think I shall do my best to make you forget Margaret," she

Meaning of "Double Standard."

The term "double standard" is used in both ethics and in money. In the first case it refers to what is known as the double standard of morals, whereby certain privileges are allowed to men that are not permitted to women. In money the double standard is a monetary standard based on both gold and silver as the material of the circulating medium, distinct from the single standard based upon either gold or silver.

IMMIGRATION BILL PUTS BAN ON JAPS

HOUSE PASSES RESTRICTIVE MEASURE OVER PROTEST OF NIPPONESE.

VOTE DECISIVE, 322 TO 71

Note From Japan Had Warned That Exclusion Would Result in "Grave Consequences."

Washington—Carrying a Japanese exclusion provision against which the Japanese government has protested vigorously, the Johnson immigration bill passed the house, 322 to 71. No effort was made to eliminate the Japanese section, which provoked only brief and perfunctory discussion.

There was nothing to indicate that any of the opposition votes were directed at the Asiatic policy, but rather against the provision fixing the 1890 census as the basis of the two per cent quota, which was adopted.

The existing law, which expires on next June 30, fixed the quota at three per cent on the 1910 census and had no provision relating to Japanese immigration which for years has been regulated by the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan. Secretary Hughes has urged that the American government continue to recognize this agreement and the Japanese be placed on the same quota basis as the nationals of other countries.

Ambassador Hanihara, of Japan, had a few days previously, protested vigorously against excluding Japanese immigration. His letter to Secretary Hughes reiterated Japan's formal protest against the exclusion of that country from nations entitled to a definite quota, and warned of "the grave consequences" which enactment of the measure "would inevitably bring."

The note, gave for the first time in concrete form the terms of the Gentlemen's Agreement of 1907, asserted formally that Japan had scrupulously observed that covenant and declared the honor of the Japanese government was being attacked by those who contended to the contrary.

FLYER FALLS OVER FOUR MILES

Selfridge Aviator Breaks Record in Parachute Drops.

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—Jumping off a DeHaviland plane at a height of 22,400 feet, or more than four miles, Sergt. Dewey Webb of Selfridge Field, broke the record for a parachute jump by an enlisted man in an ordinary Army plane. A wrenched back was the penalty of his feat. The plane was piloted by Sergeant Geo. Pomeroy.

Because of the cold, rarefied air, and his heavy clothing, Webb climbed out on the fuselage of the plane with great difficulty when the plane had reached its maximum height.

He stood upright on the fuselage of the plane and then fell off. He was too encumbered to jump.

It was only after he had taken a sheer drop of several hundred feet that he opened one of the two parachutes strapped to his back. The second he never opened. As the parachute opened, his descent was checked so suddenly that his back was wrenched.

For 25 minutes he fell, drifting 15 to 16 miles. He landed near Utica, falling feet first. The wind drove the parachute into a tree and then dragged into a fence corner, where Webb, stunned, regained consciousness after a few minutes and found himself ill.

Meanwhile, Sergt. Pomeroy and Lieut. Ruben Moffett, in another plane, were following the course of the parachute to be on hand when Webb landed.

GAS RATES ARE UP IN DETROIT

New Agreement Increases Charge to Large Consumers.

Detroit—The board of arbitration for new gas rates, after four months of hearings and deliberations, has made its decision fixing gas rates for three years.

The decision provides that: Rates to householders and other small consumers shall remain the same as at present, 79 cents per 1000 feet minumum.

Rates to large consumers shall be increased, the increases to range from 8½ to 43 per cent more than the present rates.

The minimum monthly bill to any consumer shall be $1.

The calorific content of the gas shall be reduced from its present standard of 600 British Thermal Units per 1,000 cu. ft. to 530 B T U.'s.

Over $15,000,000,000 Are Tax Exempt.

Washington—The treasury made public a revised estimate of the amount of wholly tax-exempt securities outstanding on February 29, 1924 The total was estimated at $15,107,000,000. This includes $11,378,000,000 in securities of states, counties, cities etc. $2,294,000,000 of securities of the United States government, $1,310,000,000 of land banks, and $125,000,000 of securities of territories, insular possessions and the District of Columbia.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Hillsdale—Strictly fresh eggs declined to a record low price for many years here when they were retailed in the open market at 19 cents a dozen.

Owosso—A contract for the construction of the new city hall has been awarded to the Henry C. Webber Construction Co., of Bay City. Its bid for the general contract was $82,890.

Detroit—Three hundred and fifty members of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce will help Detroit celebrate the Fourth of July. They will stop on their way to Duluth during the second annual cruise of the organization.

Detroit—The economic importance of the lakes-to-the-ocean deep waterway project will be emphasized in one of the numerous educational exhibits to be shown at the Michigan Industrial exposition in Convention hall, May 3, to 17.

East Lansing—With the receipt of the entry of the Bay City Riding Club, the annual R. O. T. C. Horse Show at the Michigan Agricultural College, May 30 and 31, is assuming proportions which rank it with the leading events of the type in the state.

Monroe—Motorists in the vicinity of Carleton, 10 miles north of Monroe, are riding on free gasoline these days. A tank car filled with gasoline derailed and the car was partly upset so that gasoline flowed from it in a steady stream. Residents quickly secured pans, milk cans and other containe and carried it away.

Pontiac—Traffic officers of Pontiac will begin a drive against defective brakes of automobiles. All motorists will be stopped and the brakes of their cars tested. Those which pass inspection will bring a card of approval for the owner while others will be required to visit repair shops at once or lose their driver's licenses.

Charlotte—The lives of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barlond, of Kalamo Township, were saved by a book agent who called at their house, looked in the window and saw the two sitting in their chairs apparently sleeping, and then broke in and found the two had been overcome by coal gas. They were taken into the air and revived.

East Lansing—Michigan potato growers lose more than $1,000,000 a year, by marketing potatoes of poor quality, according to H. C. Moore, potato specialist for the Michigan Agricultural College Extension Division. "The market demands high quality stock," declared Moore, "and our producers must grow the kind the market wants."

Detroit—The council has approved the ordinance requiring the vaccination of all dogs against rabies. This action was taken upon request of Dr. Henry F. Vaughan, health commissioner, who presented statistics intended to prove that there is a great danger of persons suffering from hydrophobia as a result of being bitten by dogs at this time.

Grand Rapids—A freight car loaded with imported liquor was seized by Federal prohibition agents in the Grand Trunk Railway yards here. The cargo, valued by Mr. Davis at $20,000 to $25,000, is one of the richest seizures made by prohibition agents in some time. The car was billed from a fictitious firm in Seabright, N. J., to a fictitious person in Grand Rapids as "auto decking."

Detroit—Hereafter, the minimum bail for prisoners, brought before J. Stanley Hurd, United States Commissioner, will be $2,000. In making this announcement, Mr. Hurd said the step was necessitated by the frequency with which Federal prisoners—particularly of the bootlegging fraternity—have, of late, forfeited the $1,000 bonds under which it has been his general practice to place them while awaiting trial.

Pontiac—Clifford W. Ham, city manager of Gladstone, Mich., and former city clerk here, has been appointed city manager of Pontiac at a salary of $6,500 a year. The appointment was made by the city commission from a list of 11 candidates. He succeeds Irving C. Brower, who resigned rather than demand at the request of the commission, the immediate resignation of Ike Thurman, ousted chief of police.

Grand Rapids — Drastic action against autourban bus operators violating the State truck weight limitation was taken last week when deputy sheriffs stopped buses and compelled several of the passengers to walk to their destinations or to interurban stations. Operators have threatened to discontinue service because of the enforcement of the ruling which limits some large buses to 19 passengers and others to only five or six.

Lansing—Proof of publication of the legal notices of the judgment of custer issued against the House of David has been filed by the state with the secretary of state's department and the clerk of the Ingham county circuit court. This step paves the way for the filing of a petition by the state attorney general's department, asking for appointment of a receiver for the Benton Harbor colony. The big legal fight to oust the colony from Michigan then will be under way, according to O L. Smith, assistant attorney general.

The Truth

About this Light-Six—plus proof on proof

THIS Studebaker Light-Six is the supreme value in the "thousand-dollar" class.

It offers, not a few, but scores of advantages. In its chassis it represents the best that modern engineering knows. In its steels and quality of construction it is identical with the costliest cars we build.

This is to offer you proofs. Then urge that you see it before paying $1,000 or more for a car.

Some evidence

The extra values which this car typifies have made Studebaker the largest builder of quality cars.

They have made these cars a sensation. Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The multiplying demand has forced an investment of $50,000,000 in model plants and equipment. Of this, $38,000,000 has been spent in the past five years, so the plants are up-to-date.

The engineering department which designs and superintends this Light-Six costs $500,000 per year.

The machines which build it are modern and exact. 517 operations on this car are exact to 1/1000th of an inch. 122 operations are exact to one-half 1/1000th of an inch.

1,200 inspectors are employed to submit each car in the making to 32,000 inspections.

Infinite care

The steels are selected from 35 formulas, each one proved best by years of test for its purpose. On some we pay the makers 15% premium to get them exactly right.

The crankshafts are machined on all surfaces, as was done in the Liberty Airplane Motors. This to give perfect motor balance, at an extra cost to us of $600,000 yearly.

It has more Timken bearings than any other competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

The equipment is unusual. The cushions are of genuine leather, and are ten inches deep.

Every part and detail accords with Studebaker traditions. And the name Studebaker has for 72 years stood for quality and class.

Mark this result

Some men who operate fleets of cars in this class called in auditors to compare the operating costs. They made comparisons on 329 cars, running up to 25,000 miles.

It was found that this Studebaker Light-Six cost for operation 11.4% less than the average of its rivals. This figure included depreciation. That meant $207.50 saved on 25,000 miles. All because of this quality construction.

What it saves you

We build 150,000 cars yearly. All such major costs as engineering, dies, overhead, etc., are divided by 150,000.

We build in model plants, with modern machinery, which have immensely reduced the manufacturing costs.

A car like this, built under ordinary conditions, would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

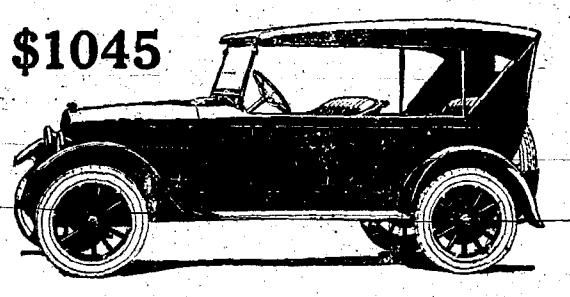

Learn, for your own sake, what that means to you.

Send for the book

Mail us the coupon below. We will send you free our new book that will inform you on five simple things which reveal the value of a car. For instance: It will enable you to look at any car and tell whether it's been cheapened to meet a price or offers true quality.

It will tell you why some cars rattle at 20,000 miles and others don't. It shows one single point in a closed car which measures whether you're getting top or medium quality. The book is free—clip the coupon below.

With the hearty co-operation of the towns people this fair can be made the big feature of the year!

Watch for further announcements!

A Cheboygan man reports having found a highwayman's outfit in the railroad yards at Cheboygan. A blackjack, revolver and flashlight were included in the outfit picked up by the workman. It is believed the highwayman dropped the outfit while "riding the rods" through that city.

Orville LeRoy, seven-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Holley, passed away at an early hour Tuesday morning, of heart trouble. Funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. McKenzie, pastor of the Church of God of Boyne City. Interment at Sunset Hill.

Governors of all States have been urged by secretary of Agriculture Wallace to observe Forest Protection Week, April 21-27. In a letter to each Governor, he emphasizes the need for stamping out forest fires, more than 36,000 of which occur in the United States every year. Secretary Wallace, whose department is charged with the administration and protection of the national forests, points out that Forest Protection Week is not for the benefit of any single class of citizens or business interests, but that the burdens resulting from forest fires fall on every citizen, since the United States consumes more wood than all other nations combined.

The Michigan Potato Producers association will hold its annual meeting in Traverse City, April 22 and 23. The association has 600 members, most of them growers of certified seed potatoes, and the meeting will be given oaer to educational matters pertaining to the growing of potatoes. Two speakers from outside the state are expected to be present. One of them, Daniel Dean, of New York, is a widely known grower and regarded as an authority on potato production in the eastern states. Another speaker, probably Dr. E. A. Dixon, of Pennsylvania, where large quantities of Michigan grown potatoes are used for seed.

Escanaba—Mrs. August Quist, 40 years old, was instantly killed by a falling tree at Bergmann's Camp near Bark River last week. She was watching her husband, who is employed in the camp, fell the tree, when it suddenly toppled and crashed to the ground, pinning her under it.

Pontiac—Frank E. Mills, 54, of Mancelona, former convict, who has not been heard of for several years, can obtain $25,000 by reporting to Ralph E. Hughes, of Harrison, state inheritance tax examiner, Hughes declared here. Hughes has communicated with the clerk of every county in the state in his search for Mills and is now starting a nation wide hunt for him.

Detroit—Judge Alfred Murphy has refused the Detroit United railways a new trial in the case of John Nagi, a war veteran, who was awarded $30,000 damages a few weeks ago by a jury. The railroad company contended the amount was excessive and that Nagi's injuries were due to his own negligenee. The veteran was struck by a street car. His left leg was crushed, both arms broken and his back injured.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Grand Rapids—The City Hall clock has been put ahead one hour, placing Grand Rapids on daylight saving for the summer.

Baldwin—Adolph and Peter Link, five and three years old, respectively, died from the effects of eating wild parsnips they found growing on their father's farm.

Grand Rapids—The city commission will be asked by the board of education to approve a budget of $2,637,026 for the coming year. The amount for general school purposes is estimated at $1,775,706.

Benton Harbor—John W. Gebhardt, 59 years old, was instantly killed while felling trees in front of his home. The falling tree carried down highly charged electric wires, which came in contact with Gebhardt's body.

Kalamazoo—Municipal ownership advocates won at the polls in the state primary election when Kalamazoo voted three to one in favor of extending the municipal lighting service to commercial and household users.

Grand Rapids—In the recent city election Grand Rapids voters placed their stamp of approval on the $500,000 bonding issue for the extension of the municipal water works system. Proposals for the city at large to pay 25 per cent of the cost of widening two main streets were defeated.

Lansing—The State Highway Department has cancelled recent orders limiting the load of trucks operating on State highways to a weight of 350 pounds per inch of tire surface and reverted to the original order which allowed all trucks operating on roads south of the Bay City-Muskegon line to carry one half their regular "pay" load.

Grand Haven—The Peninsula & Northern Navigation Co. has announced that it will operate a boat line between Grand Haven and Milwaukee Service will be started on the new line early in May. Fruit growers in this section have long sought the establishment of a boat line from this port to give an outlet at the Milwaukee market for its products.

Holland—The water in Black Lake has dropped another foot, according to computations just made. This means that in the last six years the water in Black Lake has dropped nearly three feet. The United States dredge Gen. Meade has begun work dredging the channel and harbor to a uniform depth of 19 feet. At present, the depth ranges from 15 to 18 feet.

Sturgis—Arnold Sweetland, of Constantine, 11 years old, by sending out unsigned postal cards of his own initiative collected the largest Democratic caucus ever held in Constantine. His campaign was the result of hearing discouraged Democrats talk of the spring election. Young Sweetland was guest of honor at the Jefferson Club banquet of St. Joseph County.

Ionia—Hallie Curtis, 18 years old, a printer in the office of the Sentinel-Standard just finishing his apprenticeship, was drowned in Grand River here while canoeing with Muri Billings, a boy companion. The canoe overturned in a swift current. Billings took hold of Curtis' clothing with an injured hand and towed the boy close to shore, but could not hold him.

Iron Mountain—Steps will have to be taken during the summer months to provide additional room for the growing enrollment of rural schools of the district, according to Commissioner of Schools, Frank Sweeney The total enrollment of county schools has been swelled from 1,430 three years ago to more than 2,300. The greatest increase has been in the districts surrounding the Ford plant here.

Manton—Manton city officials overlooked the fact that ballots must be bought for elections and as a result the voters had nothing to vote on at the primary. Manton recently became a city. While it was a village the ballots were provided by Cedar Creek Township of which it was a part, and the new city officials forgot that it was necessary for the city to buy its own ballots this year. As a result all the electors were disenfranchised.

Muskegon—One by one Michigan cities are adopting the plan of forcing motorists to pass an examination before granting driver's licenses. Muskegon is the latest. In the future motorists must know the State law and city ordinances in regard to the operation of motor vehicles. Drivers are also submitted to a test in the operation of a car. They must prove that they know how to handle a car, driving with an experienced operator from the police department.

Detroit—Appeal to United States Court against the Treasury Department ruling that employes of the Department of Stree. Railways are liable for the payment of an income tax, is to be taken on behalf of the City. An opinion was given the City two months ago, to the effect that employes of the D. S. R., the latter being a self-supporting utility, are liable to payment of the Federal income tax. It was against this ruling that the City sought an appeal before the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the same being denied.

LIGHT THROWN ON AIRCRAFT FRAUDS

TESTIMONY OF FORMER LEGAL ADVISER OF SERVICE STARTLES CAPITAL.

FRAUDS TOTAL $50,000,000

Lincoln Motor Company, of Detroit, Among Concerns Cited—Owed Government $9,800,000.

Washington — The testimony of Thomas F. Lane, before the Senate investigating committee proved to be a real sensation in the capital.

Lane told the committee he had been dismissed as a legal adviser to the army air service after having been ordered several days ago "to stay away from the committee."

Lane testified that two weeks ago papers had been taken out of his brief case on the order of the Secretary of War, John W. Weeks. These papers, Mr. Lane said on the witness stand, were his private papers, copies of reports made by him in aircraft frauds during the last five years—frauds which he estimated at $50,000,000—and they form, he stated, "the final fulcrum to open the lid and turn the light on some darkness in the war department."

Although not in possession of his records, Lane described his own investigations and recommndations touching the Standard company, the Lincoln Motor Corporation and the American Bosch Magneto Co., which had war contracts.

From the Standard company, controlled by Mitsui & Co., a New York subsidiary of a Japanese banking firm, he said, the Government should have obtained repayment of about $2,200,000. From the American Bosch Magneto Co., he had recommended repayment of $450,000, and from the Lincoln corporation he fixed the sum of $9,800,000.

A compromise was made by the Department of Justice in the Lincoln Motor case, he said, over the formal protest of the War Department, for $1,500,000, after the company had gone into receivership. From others he added, nothing had been obtained and against them action had been instituted.

All the Government claims arose from re-investigations of war contract settlements, Lane explained.

"HALF LOAD" ORDER MODIFIED

Licensed Truck Lines May Carry One-half Capacity.

Lansing—In compliance with the protests of the State Public Utilities Commission, that common carrier motor vehicles were seriously handicapped by the one-half truck-load order, the State Highway Department modified its ruling to permit licensed common carrier trucks and busses to carry one-half net pay loads, rather than one-half gross weights of trucks and loads combined.

Under the original ruling, which held all trucks to one-half the gross load during the period when trunk line highways are soft, the restriction in many cases prevented common carrier trucks from operating, even empty, it was claimed.

The modified order does not affect privately owned trucks south of the Muskegon-Bay City line. They must still hold to gross loads, except on pavements and on certain excepted highways.

School busses are excepted completely, being authorized to carry full loads over all roads.

STONE NEW CABINET MEMBER

College Mate of Coolidge Becomes U. S. Attorney General

Washington—Harlan Fiske Stone, dean of the law college of Columbia university, and one of the most widely known legal authorities in the east, was named attorney general last week by President Coolidge, to succeed Harry M. Daugherty, who resigned.

Dean Stone was a college mate of President Coolidge. He graduated from Amherst college in 1894, the president a year later. Like the president, he is a New Englander, having been born in New Hampshire, in 1872, the same year that the president was born in the neighboring state of Vermont.

Following his graduation, Stone went to New York, where he was admitted to the bar in 1898. Almost immediately he became a lecturer and later a professor in Columbia law school. At the same time he entered a partnership with the firm of which he continues a member. In 1910 he became dean.

Gifts Make Remington Die Poor.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Virtually impoverished by his philanthropy toward Syracuse university, Eliphalet Remington, 95, of Ilion, oldest trustee of the university and donor of its first property here, died after a year's illness in a sanitarium at Herkimer. Benefactions by Mr. Remington and his brother, firearm and typewriter manufacturers, to Syracuse totaled more than a quarter of a million dollars, coming nearly half a century ago when the Remingtons were rich.

Milton D. Purdy, of Minneapolis, a former assistant Attorney General, has been appointed by President Coolidge to be judge of the United States Court in China.

DRUGGIST HELD FOR 18 DEATHS

Charged With Manslaughter in Sale of Denatured Alcohol.

Toledo—A druggist and three clerks have been charged with manslaughter in warrants issued in Toledo's "canned heat" deaths last week. Eighteen men died here last week from drinking canned heat, or denatured alcohol.

Those named in the warrants are Meyer Selzman, drug store proprietor Harry Porter, Martin Bracker and Aaron Leventhal, clerks. The warrants charge the quartet with selling wood alcohol to three of the victims.

Harry Porter, 16, clerk in the store, testified Selzman advised him his customers wanted denatured alcohol for cleaning purposes.

"'Don't they drink it?'" Porter said he inquired of Selzman. "'Oh, no, but what difference does it make if they do.'" Selzman replied, according to Porter's testimony.

TEN YEAR WILL CASE CLOSED

Court Upholds Testament of Former Romeo Resident.

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—When Melitta Grover, of Romeo, died about 10 years ago she left a $75,000 estate, the bulk of which was by her will assigned for social work among the poor white people in the mountains of Kentucky and Tennessee. Endless litigation followed on the part of other heirs who were named as legatees to the amount of $35,000. Judge Albert Widdis, of East Tawas, who presided in the circuit court here when the last contest was staged, has just filed his decision, which is expected to close the litigation.

The court orders that the residue of the estate be turned over forthwith for the purpose for which it was intended.

Governor Groesbeck was one of the attorneys in the case at one time during its several stages of litigation.

HOTEL FIRE QUERY DELAYED

Four Lost Lives When Grand Rapids Landmark Burned.

Grand Rapids—Probe into the "mysterious angles," to use the words of Prosecuting Attorney Cornelius Hoffius, surrounding the Livingston hotel fire has been deferred until this week.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Livingston hotel, a landmark of Grand Rapids, last week and resulted in the death of four persons.

The dead are: Mrs. Jennie Evans, 60 years old, of Grand Rapids, a hair dresser; Everett F. Sargent, 48, traveling salesman Grand Rapids; Miss Bessie Marlowe, 34, Reed City, high school teacher; John C. Kelly, 60, Grand Rapids; brother of the manager of the Kelly Shirt Co., and employed by that company.

A score of other guests were injured in escaping from the burning building.

WISCONSIN FOR LA FOLLETTE

Primary Election Gave Him 2 To 1 Plurality Over Coolidge.

Milwaukee—Returns from last week's presidential primary election gave Senator Robert M. La Follette a vote of 2 to 1 over President Coolidge. On the Democratic ticket, Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, carried the state by a comfortable margin over W. G. McAdoo.

Daniel Hoan, Socialist, was re-elected mayor of Milwaukee over David S. Rose in the non-partisan election here by a majority of 16,794, according to complete returns.

Roosevelt Fights Army-Navy Merger.

Washington — Assistant Secretary Theodore Roosevelt told the House Naval Committee recently that a "united air defense would be detrimental to both the army and navy, as it is not a good thing to have the entire defense of the coast assigned to either the army or the navy. A mobile defense of the coast must remain off shore, a naval function. It must be handled largely through co-ordination and liason between both branches of the service."

Why it's easy

to keep Barreled Sunlight clean

BARRELED Sunlight is a white paint which produces a surface so smooth that dust or dirt—smudges or fingermarks — cannot "sink in." It can be kept clean as easily as white tile. A damp cloth will always wash it spotless.

Ideal for bathroom and kitchen walls and for woodwork everywhere. Costs less than enamel, requires fewer coats and is guaranteed to remain white longer.

Barreled Sunlight is easy to apply. It flows freely without a brushmark. Is readily tinted. Sold in cans from half-pint to five gallon size.

Ouch! Lumbago Pain! Rub Backache Away

Instant Relief with a small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Kidneys cause Backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

DAWES PROPOSES HELP FOR GERMANY

REPARATIONS COMMISSION GETS "BUSINESS LIKE" PLAN FROM AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE.

REVISES VERSAILLES TREATY

Proposes Limited Supervision and Control of Industry By Allies to Help Country Pay.

Paris — The report of General Charles G. Dawes, to the reparations Commission virtually recommends rewriting the financial provisions of the treaty of Versailles. It is a "business-like" plan for obtaining reparations from Germany, while balancing her budget and stabilizing her currency.

The Dawes report proposed:

(1) Creation of a bank of emission, to issue paper money for Germany and handle the reparations account.

(2) The taking over of German railways by a company which will run them for the benefit of both Germany and her creditors.

(3) A foreign loan of 800,000,000 gold marks to stabilize Germany's currency, and take care of her immediate treaty obligations.

(4) Obtaining reparations payments from sale of railway and industrial bonds and from revenue from monopolies on luxuries.

(5) A sliding scale of reparations payments, starting at one billion gold marks the first year, and increasing as Germany prospers.

(6) France and Belgium must release their economic hold on the Ruhr, but may retain their armies of occupation.

The report, hailed as the most momentous document since the Versailles treaty, which it would in a measure revise, differs from that pact in this: General Dawes and his colleagues, who included Owen D. Young, based their entire findings on the hypothesis "that the fiscal and economic unity of the Reich will be restored;" Germany is not told what she must pay, and left to find the money; the experts, through limited control and supervision, would have the Allies share with the late enemy interest and responsibility in the business of making Germany bear a fair share of a fair burden.

Re-establishment of confidence in Germany, on the part of her own people, as well as the rest of the world, is held to be vital to success of the plan.

General Dawes' committee has proposed to create this confidence by making it to Germany's interest to pay her debts. To this end the broadest, most complicated scheme ever devised for rehabilitation of a nation and extracting payments, is outlined.

STINNES, GERMAN LEADER, DEAD

Was Dominant Figure in Finance and Industry.

Berlin—Hugo Stinnes, famous German financier and industrial leader is dead, following three operations within the past month.

Stinnes was known as Germany's "industrial kaiser." He was one of the most dominant figures during the World war and since the war has been without a rival in Germany's financial and industrial circles.

Next to the loss of his leadership over the industrial group which wields such important influence in the determination of German reparation policy, interest centers in the policy to be followed with regard to his manifold business interests, the main details of which were always a matter of personal concern with him, and which he continued to supervise until the last.

The administration of these interests will devolve on his sons, Edmund and Hugo, Jr., both of whom have been in close touch with their father's enterprise during the last five years.

Since the grave nature of Herr Stinnes' illness became known to the people of Berlin it had been almost the sole topic of discussion.

BLOOM WINS CONGRESS SEAT

House Votes 210 to 198 to Seat New Yorker, Democrat.

Washington—By a vote of 210 to 198 the house has adopted a resolution declaring that Sol Bloom, Democrat, was entitled to his seat as a member from the Nineteenth New York district.

By this action the house threw out the election contest of former Representative Walter M. Chandler, Bloom's Republican opponent at the polls.

Boy Author, 15, Earns $15,000 a Year.

St. Louis—Horace A. Wade is just a freckled faced boy of 15 in knee pants, but he's earned $40,000, and has an income of $15,000 a year. Horace made the money writing novels. He has written five of them. All are the kind dear to the heart of the American boy. And he is now preparing his "reminiscences," including interviews he has had with such celebrities as Presidents Harding, Coolidge, Taft and Wilson, and Lloyd George.

Spring Fashions Flaunt the Scarf

The scarf's the thing—this spring. Fashion flaunts its favorite everywhere—on hats, dresses, blouses, coats and suits, either as a part of the garment or as a separate accessory. There are scarfs for all occasions. For sports wear hats made with scarfs to match hold the center of the stage, and often the hat trimming is extended into scarf ends, as shown in the picture above.

COLOSSAL

"Colossal" is an adjective which is applied to anything remarkable for its great size. The "Colossus" was a famous statue of Apollo, the sun god, which was carved by Chares in 280 B. C. This gigantic statue, 105 feet high, dominated the harbor at Rhodes. The name also was applied to other large statues of antiquity and survives today in the adjective.

Father Sage Says:

"The bloodhounds used in the old 'Uncle Tom' shows never were real bloodhounds — but they looked more like them than the genuwine, so whut was the diff'runce?"

We Dare Say.

When women rave about independence and emancipation, the married guys who hear it are just about ready to commit harikari for losing theirs.

In the Heat of the Story.

"Suddenly I became aware of the fact that I was alone on the battlefield, but I fought on, unhesitatingly and unconcerned."

A Great Shock.

It is usually a great shock to a woman to discover later in the game that her husband knew exactly what he was talking about.

Work Wearing You Out?

East Jordan Folks Find a Bad Back a Heavy Handicap.

Is your work wearing you out? Are you tortured with throbbing backache—feel tired, weak and discouraged? Then look to your kidneys! Many occupations tend to weaken the kidneys. Constant backache, headaches, dizziness and rheumatic pains are the result. You suffer annoying bladder irregularities; feel nervous, irritable and worn out. Don't wait! Use Doans' Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Workers everywhere recommend Doan's. Here's an East Jordan case.

Robert Grant, says: "My back played out while at work. I couldn't lie still in bed as my back hurt so. After a hard day's work I couldn't get any rest. Night after night I had to get up and sit in a chair. My hands and feet often swelled, too. My kidneys were disordered and I had to get up many times at night. Doan's Pills, from the Hite Drug Co., cured me."

Clean Kidneys By Drinking Lots of Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers or Back Hurts

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts can not injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, say well-known druggists here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS BACKACHE

The heat of red peppers takes the "ouch" from a sore, lame back. It can not hurt you, and it certainly ends the torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub, and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

Ann Arbor—Dr. Christopher G. Parnall, former director of the University of Michigan Hospital, has been appointed medical director of the Rochester General Hospital, Rochester, N. Y., and consultant for the building plans of the new $5,000,000 hospital and medical school of the University of Iowa.

Port Huron—According to Dr. W. H. Morris, Margaret L. Austin is entitled to the lightweight birth record of Michigan. When she was born, Jan. 5, 1923, she weighed 18 ounces. Recently she weighed 18½ pounds. During the past year the infant has had whooping cough and chicken pox, but is now in perfect health.

St. Johns—Mrs. Anna Skutt, of this city, widow of a Civil war veteran, has obtained a monthly pension of $30 from the Government and in addition, back payments for four years. This sum is swelled by the payment of additional money due her late husband, Peter Skutt, a member of the Fourteenth Michigan infantry during the war.

Lansing—Contracts for seven road projects on M-27 and M-19, and one for drainage and grading, all in St. Clair county, were let on the condition that the low bidders can increase the center thickness to eight inches instead of seven, as originally specified, change the edge to a 10-inch thickness and offer a favorable change in price to conform with the changes.

Lansing—Michigan's highway department, upon the payment of a nominal charge, will supply to hotels and other places where tourists are liable to look for information, a map giving conditions of the roads of the state and the kind of roads upon which the tourist will travel. The map will be changed each two weeks to keep it up to date, and will give the latest possible information concerning road conditions.

Union City—Jacoba's Golden Mella Ann 374745, a Jersey cow owned by C. E. George, of Union City, has recently completed a most creditable record. She started the test as a mature cow and in one year produced 12,903 pounds of milk and 767.47 pounds of butter-fat, on twice a day milking. This Michigan Jersey appeared in the 50 pound list for eight consecutive months and in the second month of her lactation period missed the 90 pounds of butter-fat smash by only .3 of one pound. She has now one tested daughter.

Likely Olympic Jumper

V. W. Pickard, shown in the photograph, a student of Hamilton Collegiate Institute, Ontario, is a close rival of D. D. Francis of Toronto university for pole vault honors. Pickard claims to have cleared two inches higher than Francis at a recent exhibition. Both men are likely to go to France for the Olympics.

"Sheffield"

Trays made of Sheffield plate are popular wedding presents. Sheffield plating is a process which was developed at Sheffield, England, in the Eighteenth century. A metal ware is made by a process of laying a thin silver plate on one of copper and rolling it. The accent is placed on the first syllable.

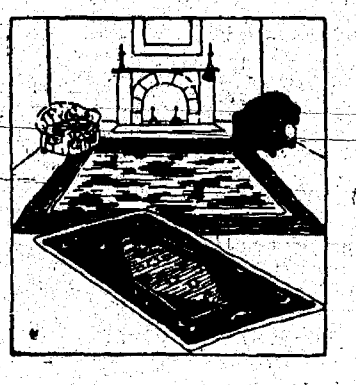

Army School of Business.

The supply officers of the United States army make annual expenditures of public funds mounting to many millions of dollars in times of peace and billions in time of war. That they may perform this important service with the greatest efficiency an army school of business has been proposed by the assistant secretary of war, Col. Dwight F. Davis.

When We Kill Time.

When people kill time it is the 1,000,000 years past and the 1,000,000 years to come that they're thinking of
